DRACULA

By Steven Dietz

October 8 - 24, 2010

"I want your fear. For your fear, like a current, rushes through your body. Your fear makes your heart pound, it renders your veins rich and full. Your fear hemorrhages deliciously within you." This new adaptation restores the suspense and seduction of Bram Stoker's classic novel to the stage. As Count Dracula begins to exert his will upon the residents of London, they try to piece together the clues of his appearances - in a valiant attempt to save themselves from a hideous fate. Rich with both humor and horror, this play paints a wickedly theatrical picture of Stoker's famous vampire.

JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT

Music by Andrew Lloyd Webber

Lyrics by Tim Rice

December 3 - 19, 2010

Take a RAINBOW ride through biblical Egypt with Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's irresistible retelling of the story of Joseph, his jealous brothers and one very loud garment! A colorful tale that spans musical styles from calypso to rock to disco to country, this worldwide phenomenon has been an audience favorite for more than thirty-five years! Songs include: "Go Go Go Joseph", "Any Dream Will Do", and "Song of the King (Seven Fat Cows)".

ALEXANDER AND THE TERRIBLE, HORRIBLE, NO GOOD, VERY BAD DAY

Book & Lyrics by Judith Viorst

Music by Shelly Markham

Public Performances

January 21-23, 2011

It's 7 a.m. You wake up with a nasty wad of gum in your hair. Trip on your skateboard. Drop your sweater in a sink full of water. And your brothers express interest in trading you for some roller blades. And now it's only 7:15 a.m.! As bad days go, it's tough to top Alexander's. He's the funniest fed-up kid ever, and this is one of the coolest kid's musicals ever.

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

By Frances Goodrich & Albert Hackett

Newly adapted by Wendy Kesselman

February 18 - 27, 2011

In this transcendently powerful play, Anne Frank emerges from history a living, lyrical, intensely gifted young girl, who confronts her rapidly changing life and the increasing horror of her time with astonishing honesty, wit, and determination. An impassioned drama about the lives of eight people hiding from the Nazis in a concealed storage attic, THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK captures the claustrophobic realities of their daily existence - their fear, their hope, their laughter, their grief. Each day of these two dark years, Anne's voice shines through.

URINETOWN

Music & Lyrics by Mark Hollmann

Book & Lyrics by Greg Kotis

April 1 - 17, 2011

The winner of Tony Awards for Best Musical Score and Best Book, URINETOWN is a hilarious tale of greed, corruption, love, and revolution in a time when water is worth its weight in gold. In a Gotham-like city, a terrible water shortage, caused by a 20-year drought, has led to a government-enforced ban on private toilets. The citizens must use public amenities, regulated by a single malevolent company that profits by charging admission for one of humanity's most basic needs. Amid the people, a hero decides he's had enough, and plans a revolution to lead them all to freedom! Songs include: "Run, Freedom, Run", "Don't Be The Bunny", "Follow Your Heart" and "I See A River".

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN

Adapted by Christopher Sergel

From the book by

Frank Gilbreth & Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

May 13 - 29, 2011

What do you get when you put twelve lively kids together with a father, a famous efficiency expert, who believes families can run like factories, and a mother who is his partner in everything except discipline? You get an engaging coming-of-age story that still rings true. Teenage rebellion against parental authority looked pretty much the same in the early 1900's as it does now. This endearing classic comedy is based on memoirs written by two of the actual 'dozen,' this family-friendly show caps off our 41st season.
